PRE- & POST-CRUISE LAND PROGRAMMES

Some destinations entice visitors to stay longer and explore more of the cultural beauty, local flavours and captivating history. Engross yourself within your destination on one of our well-planned Land Programmes — before or after your voyage — many of which are free. Go deeper into the wonders of your destination where continents collide, cultures are born and history was made, from the breathtaking beauty of Asia, Africa and Arabia to the northern shores of Europe and beyond.

MID-CRUISE OVERLAND PROGRAMMES

If you desire more time ashore during your voyage but don't want to extend your travel with a Land Programme, then our Overland Programmes are the ideal solution. Cities in clouds, walls without end, ancient temples and captivating metropolises are only the beginning of the opportunities that await when going overland. Go further with these unforgettable shoreside adventures, bookended by the luxury and comfort of your suite aboard The World's Most Luxurious Fleet™.

PRE- & POST-CRUISE HOTEL PROGRAMME

Relax in a world-class hotel with a full breakfast each day and private, group transfers between ship, hotel and airport when you take advantage of our Pre- and Post-Cruise Hotel Programme for 1, 2 or 3 nights.

IN-PORT OVERNIGHTS

Evenings provide a different view of a city as the streets light up and the locals unwind. Discover the charms of a destination's nightlife and enjoy more time ashore with more than 120 overnights in ports across every region of the world.

ANNUALLY REFRESHED ITINERARIES & NEW PORTS OF CALL

Exploration doesn't exist if there isn't something new to discover. Each and every year we develop new and unique itineraries — including new ports of call and more shore excursions — ensuring you always have new ways to enjoy your travels. Gorgeous shores and idyllic waters beckon to sunbathers and beach-lovers in Miyako, Japan, while the 5,000-plus-year historical importance and culture of Izmir, Turkey — once known as Smyrna — carry a different intrigue. From the resplendence of nature to the epicurean refinements of human creativity, there are amazing memories to be created in each port of call.

We've sailed millions of miles to thousands of ports throughout every ocean and are still excited to explore further. Come with us to discover and experience the best life has to offer...then, return for more.

A TASTE OF TRAVEL

EXQUISITE CUISINE

New flavours and intoxicating aromas from far-off lands ignite our senses and enliven our spirits with new passions and a growing wanderlust. It's why we take pride in creating dining experiences that are so exquisite: nothing can elevate travel like cuisine.

Take in the bouquet and savour the notes of an expertly paired glass of wine provided by the head sommelier and bite into a perfectly aged and prepared filet mignon at Prime 7. Every appetiser at Compass Rose — like the delicate and rich lobster bisque — offers a delightful array of tastes and textures, while the scent of freshly baked bread and pastries makes for a refreshing greeting at breakfast each morning.

Allow the sublime and traditional flavourings of the Sole Grenobloise to transport you to France from Chartreuse. Italy is always at hand via the authentic dishes of Sette Mari at La Veranda, like the subtly enhanced flavourings of the pollo alla cacciatora. Deliver an exotic touch to your evening with an array of dim sum at Pacific Rim on Seven Seas Splendor™ and Seven Seas Explorer®.

The Pool Grill is the perfect spot to relax with friends after a full day of onshore adventures. Or, for a more private evening, enjoy the quiet and comfort of your own suite with a meal prepared to your liking through our 24-hour, in-suite dining service.

Whatever your diet and whatever your mood, our masterful culinary teams deliver unforgettable dining experiences with a wide selection of delicious choices, including plant-based and gluten-free offerings. Dining is always whenever, wherever and with whomever you choose. And there is never a charge for the gourmet cuisine, an exceptional wine list or the impeccable service.

A HERITAGE OF PERFECTION

As we look forward and envision a future that lies just past the horizon, our excitement grows in anticipation of inviting you aboard our newest addition to The World's Most Luxurious Fleet™ in 2023.

JEDDAH, SAUDI ARABIA

Archaeological excavations have revealed 5,000 years of civilization on Jeddah's land, but it's a blend of old and new that makes Saudi Arabia's 'bride of the Red Sea' so appealing. Explore the narrow medieval alleys of the old town (Al Balad), beloved for its wonderfully unique houses built out of blocks of coral harvested from the Red Sea. Wander the ancient stalls of the bustling Souq Al Lawi, the Kingdom's most extensive bazaar, for genuine Arabian jewelry, Islamic art and traditional footwear. People-watch along the Corniche, a seafront promenade lined with lush green landscaping, cafes, piers and all 312 metres of the iconic King Fahd's Fountain. Enjoy a delicious mixed-rice-and-meat-meal of kabsa, considered the national dish of Saudi Arabia, or a traditional treat called matazez, usually cooked with lamb and vegetables.

TLINGIT TOTEM
ICY STRAIT POINT, ALASKA

EXPECT THE MAJESTIC IN THE WILDLANDS

Like Sir Edmund Hillary and Sherpa mountaineer Tenzing Norgay, the first two men to summit Mt. Everest, Jack London fired the imaginations of early 20th-century readers worldwide when he wrote about the fight to survive in the frozen wilds of Alaska and the Yukon. London claimed to have ‘found himself’ on his Klondike journey, and the Last Frontier has captured imaginations and delivered on expectations ever since, with awe-inspiring wilderness and its almost spiritual ‘call of the wild’.

Seven Seas Explorer® is your peerless vessel for answering that call in 2023. From mid-May to mid-September, Alaska is at its wild, blossoming best, with extended hours of daylight and waterways alive with sea life. Outside Ketchikan, cruise through the wonderland of sheer vertical cliffs and roaring waterfalls that is Misty Fjords. See and hear the colourful legends of Skagway from London’s gold rush days before settling in with a fresh seafood feast. In Disenchantment Bay near the outer coast of Yakutat and against a backdrop of Mt. Saint Elias, gaze in awe at Hubbard Glacier as it calves, shedding massive blocks of ice into the sea. After a glorious tour of Sitka National Historic Park, reward yourself with a perfect pint and fresh salmon at a local brewery.

A fearless Jack London could never have imagined taking in the majesty of Alaska from the luxurious comfort of a warm, spacious suite, but you can. And as you relax on your private balcony, don’t forget to keep on the lookout for surfacing humpback whales and orcas, Steller sea lions dancing around the docks, Dall’s porpoise playing in your ship’s wake, bald eagles soaring above, bears roaming the shoreline and so much more.

NEETS BAY BEAR WATCH BY FLOATPLANE

After taking off in a floatplane, you will enjoy an exhilarating flight over some of Alaska’s most spectacular terrain, a land of dense forests and soaring mountains. To ensure the best viewing, you will have a window seat and headsets to hear narration describing the scenery below. Upon landing at Neets Bay, a short hike will bring you to a covered viewing area where black bears usually congregate in hopes of feasting on wild salmon. Along the way, a naturalist will explain the characteristics and habits of the bears and how these iconic Alaskan animals rely on the spawning salmon. Be sure to scan the forest for other wildlife because eagles, Sitka black-tailed deer and mink are also commonly spotted.

CULTURAL WINDFALLS & GLISTENING CITIES

Most people love solving puzzles. Making the unknown known is a basic human desire, and nowhere is that proven more splendidly true than when exploring in Asia. Long a mystery to the West, the mere mention of this vast continent conjures thoughts of shrines and temples, verdant jungle, centuries of history and culture, dazzling traditions and colourful, mouthwatering cuisine.

Seven Seas Explorer[®] is your primary passage to Asia in 2023 and 2024, especially with two new ports of call in Japan and one in the Philippines, while Seven Seas Navigator[®] graces its shores on four illustrious journeys. Cultural opportunities abound: watch a traditional performance while dining at the Royal Theatre in Hue, Vietnam. Catch a performance of the famous Alcazar cabaret show in Bangkok, Thailand, perhaps followed with a sampling of the city's famous street food. In Indonesia, explore Balinese culture - from ballet to traditional music to the weaving of handicrafts - at the Bali Classic Culture Center. Experience Singapore's true melting pot of cultures aboard a trishaw trip through Chinatown, the Arab Quarter or Little India. On a nighttime tour of Shanghai, China, behold a panoramic view of the shimmering city from the 88th floor of the Jin Mao Tower.

Discover Singapore, experience Beautiful Bali, take in the shining Jewels of Hong Kong and tour Vibrant Tokyo by taking advantage of remarkable FREE pre- or post-cruise land programmes that will heighten your appreciation of this intriguing part of the world.

ANTIPODEAN ANTICIPATION & ISLANDS OF LORE

Few destinations in the world produce an automatic and almost involuntary “I can’t wait to go there!” like the one-two travel punch of Australia and New Zealand; such is the appeal of a pair of countries that promise exotic fauna, other-worldly landscapes and delightful people. Your adult side won’t go wanting, of course, as both countries serve up delectable, local cuisine and world-class wines.

Nearby these magnificent lands, myth surrounds the South Pacific’s jewelled isles like mist hugging a volcanic jungle peak. The world is full of tropical paradises – are the South Sea Islands truly myth-worthy? Once you’ve been greeted with smiles and song at a Fijian village, caught the sweet, citrusy smell of frangipani or been mesmerised by the shimmering hues of a French Polynesian atoll, you’ll know.

Seven Seas Explorer[®] continues her tour of the east in 2023 and 2024 on four magical voyages around Australia and New Zealand. Meanwhile, Seven Seas Navigator[®] makes one in January 2024, including a sojourn to the gorgeous white sand beaches, fascinating cultures and genuinely warm people of the South Pacific islands.

Fall in love with Melbourne’s European elegance and sophisticated street culture, not to mention the wallabies, wombats and koalas at Healesville Sanctuary. Your first glimpse of the ‘Coathanger’ in Sydney’s sublime harbour will stay with you forever, as will Brisbane’s brilliance with wine-tasting on the Gold Coast and the sands of Surfer’s Paradise.

Across the Tasman Sea, New Zealand is similarly breathtaking yet culturally distinct from its neighbouring islands. Maori culture greets you with a spiritual embrace throughout Aotearoa (‘Land of the Long White Cloud’), contrasting Auckland’s glittering metropolis which rises above a striking canopy of long-dormant, blazingly green volcanoes.

MYSTERY ISLAND, VANUATU

For some travellers, the notion of accepting and experiencing a destination's environment without taking advantage of every possible benefit it offers goes against the very ethos of travelling. Others, of course, arrive at a far-flung and completely undeveloped locale like Mystery Island and calmly absorb its palette of soothing colours, breathe its air, hear the gentle rustling of palm fronds high in the sky, watch sun-made diamonds sparkle on translucent water, revelling in it the way you would when wandering the Louvre in Paris or Central Park in New York City.

Yes, there's outstanding snorkelling to be had among the thriving coral reefs of this marine sanctuary, and if you've never swum among playful clown fish, cheeky parrot fish or the occasional sea turtle, you should grab a mask and fins. Stand-up paddleboard lessons and massages are available, too. For lunch, residents of nearby Aneityum travel to the island to prepare freshly cooked lobster and serve banana pie, a perfect beach feast. But the greatest gift of Mystery Island is how it produces joy – without you lifting a finger.

CANADA, NEW ENGLAND & BERMUDA

TO

COLOURFUL COASTS & HISTORIC CITIES

We all have our favourite seasons, but you'd be hard-pressed to deny the magnificence of spring and autumn in the American north-east. New York City in springtime finds Gotham shaking off winter's slumber as locals hoard sunshine in Central Park and socialise at sidewalk cafes. Conversely, New England and Canada will have you pining for autumn when exploding paint cans of fall foliage transform hillsides and coastlines with an astonishing mélange of colours. Bermuda, while not beholden to seasons, is vibrant in its own right with indigo blue waterways and candy-coloured houses shining year-round.

Seven Seas Navigator® and Seven Seas Mariner® will reward fans of both of these glorious seasons in 2023, with respective visits in spring and autumn. A trifecta of charmingly different ports are new in the spring of 2023: Northern Florida's attractive Fernandina Beach on Amelia Island, the historic fishing town of Eastport, Maine, and the city of Baie-Comeau in the spectacular Côte-Nord region of Québec. Learn about the lobster industry on a tour of Halifax Harbour that ends, logically and deliciously, with a succulent lobster lunch. In Bar Harbor, go back in time on a driving tour of Gilded Age mansions before taking in the grandeur of Acadia National Park. And discovering the rich history and vibrant neighbourhoods of Boston just feels more natural when autumn is in the air.

In Bermuda, immerse yourself in the laid-back, British-influenced charm, whether popping into the delightful shops of King's Wharf or meandering past the colonial architecture along St. George's cobblestone streets, veering off in search of a pink-sand beach.

QUÉBEC CITY, CANADA

FRENCH-CANADIAN COUNTRYSIDE

Beyond the charm of downtown, Mother Nature reigns supreme in the pristine countryside surrounding Québec City. Riding through the foothills, you'll see the majestic Laurentian Mountains in the distance, the St. Lawrence River below, and the wonders of nature all around. The views are stunning from the elegant Montmorency Manoir, where you may enjoy tea and pastries before crossing the bridge to the Island of Orleans. At its south-western tip, facing Québec City, witness Sainte-Pétronille, a village that has been a fashionable summer resort since the 19th century. Of course, Canada is synonymous with maple syrup, so be sure to visit an authentic sugar shack to learn how maple syrup is made as you sample some sweet maple taffy.

FEATURED New Ports of Call

BAIE-COMEAU, QUÉBEC

Recognised by UNESCO for the forces that formed its striking landscape – millions of years of glacial erosion, the collision of a huge meteorite and an ancient sea that smoothed the land – Baie-Comeau offers breathtaking vistas from every vantage point within a biosphere reserve in the Côte-Nord region of Québec. Enjoy views of another kind by Florentine artist Guido Nincheri at Sainte-Amélie Church, rich with his frescoes and stained glass. After a fresh seafood lunch in the city's heritage district, head to St-Pancrease microbrewery for a local craft beer, perhaps mustering up the courage to try a speciality bitter brewed with crab shells.

EASTPORT, MAINE

The epitome of a 'downeast' Maine fishing town, tiny Eastport on Moose Island boasts the deepest natural seaport in the continental US and a walkable downtown that recalls the city's late-19th century heyday as a sardine exporter. A collection of quirky shops and restaurants serving locally caught seafood and lobster beckon from 29 National Historic Register buildings. Stop by the Tides Institute & Museum of Art for an appreciation of Passamaquoddy Bay area culture and creativity.

FERNANDINA BEACH, FLORIDA

Situated on moss-draped Amelia Island at Florida's north-east border, Fernandina Beach has been drawing jet-setters since the late-19th century, when industrialist Henry Flagler converted the island into a gathering place for the wealthy. You'll appreciate Flagler's legacy wandering past historic buildings, eclectic shops and Victorian B&Bs in Fernandina Beach's quaint downtown. Local, wild-caught shrimp highlight the menus of an inviting assortment of restaurants, while lush parks and miles of shoreline beckon you to revel in Amelia Island's natural beauty.

UNLIMITED TROPICAL PARADISE

Like a heavenly constellation of tropical escapes not far from the US, the Caribbean sparkles with unique cultures, warm people and the promise of spiritual revitalisation. From the hundreds of beaches in the 'British Caribbean' of St. John's, Antigua to the world-renowned coral reefs of Cozumel, Mexico, your dreams of an idyllic island getaway may be realised here – repeatedly and uniquely – in a single voyage.

Seven Seas Navigator[®] visits the chain of jewels that is the eastern Caribbean in spring 2023. The famed beaches of Aruba set a blissful tone, although lovers of architecture may prefer the Dutch charms of its capital city of Oranjestad. This trend continues with sojourns in similarly exquisite ports such as Curaçao, Bonaire, Grenada and more, each a buffet of coastal riches.

Seven Seas Mariner[®] returns later in 2023, freeing you to imagine walking the golden sands of Puerto Plata, Dominican Republic and historic streets of Old San Juan, Puerto Rico. Pulling yourself from the famed sands of Cane Garden Bay to hike a nearby rainforest or swim with dolphins will be a pleasant challenge in Tortola In-between luxuriating at a private beach villa in Harvest Caye, Belize, enjoy an aromatic tour of a spice farm that will have you drifting in vanilla, nutmeg, cardamom, cinnamon and clove dreams.

Seven Seas Splendor[™] sets sail for the Bahamas in early 2024 with the powdery, white-sand beaches of Great Stirrup Cay acting as the perfect antidote to winter's chill. In the bustling capital of Kingstown in St. Vincent and the Grenadines, enjoy a driving tour of the 'City of Arches' – named for volcanic stone arches – that includes a trio of landmark churches and colourful villages along its winding coast.

CASA BATLLÓ

CENTURIES OF TRANSCENDENCE

If travelling is the search for the soul, then the Mediterranean is where we go to find it. Inspiration is everywhere, whether in the masterwork collections of Lisbon, Rome and Florence or Gaudí's staggeringly original La Sagrada Família in Barcelona.

The naked eye struggles to absorb startling landscapes – think Santorini's whitewashed houses rising above a turquoise sea, the interior of Istanbul's Blue Mosque or Dubrovnik's medieval architecture – making us question the veracity of our own perception. Romance reignites in Nice on the French Riviera and canals of Venice, fuelled by authentic regional cuisine and exquisite local wine. We acknowledge the challenge of choosing from more than 30 Mediterranean itineraries on the world's only truly all-inclusive luxury cruise line. And we know you'll return more than satisfied – and yearning for more.

We sail to four new ports in 2023, and Seven Seas Navigator[®] visits two of them: ancient yet utterly contemporary Izmir in Turkey and the Costa del Sol's impossibly chic Puerto Banus in Spain. Seven Seas Mariner[®] also visits Izmir and makes our inaugural trip to the Greek island of Syros, where you'll be immersed in the culture, history and authentic cuisine. Finally, Seven Seas Voyager[®] will alight in the picture-perfect resort town of Marmaris, Turkey.

The intricate beauty and graceful design of Seven Seas Splendor[™] is a natural in this part of the world, and she starts the Mediterranean season in spring, 2023. Like the works of the masters, perfection is in her details – only you get to luxuriate in those details.

PIAZZA SAN MARCO

MARMARIS, TURKEY

PUERTO BANÚS, SPAIN

IZMIR, TURKEY

Curled around a cerulean bay, Izmir buzzes with a remarkably cosmopolitan vibe considering its estimated 4,000 years of history. Soak up the sublime Mediterranean atmosphere along a café-laden waterfront, savouring boyoz, kumru, kokoreç and lokma ('king of desserts') over Turkish coffee. Haggle at historic Kemeralti Bazaar, visit Izmir's archaeological museum and ride a teleferic (cable car) for panoramic views of the 'Pearl of the Aegean'.

MARMARIS, TURKEY

With an azure-blue sea lapping golden beaches, a multitude of wood-hulled yachts bobbing in marinas and pine-covered hillsides framing it all, Marmaris earns its stripes as a popular resort town. Take in the views along the walls and ramparts of Marmaris Castle before stopping off at its artefact-rich museum, then head to the waterfront for dizzying varieties of Greek and Turkish food – and maybe a sip of ouzo.

PUERTO BANÚS, SPAIN

Simply put, the most glamorous marina on Spain's Costa del Sol. Built by a local property developer in 1970, Puerto Banús today draws five million visitors annually to its high-end shopping malls, bars and restaurants. Put on your best celebrity sunglasses and promenade along Muelle de Ribera, the epicentre of exclusive boutiques and designer fashion shops.

SYROS, GREECE

If Santorini and Mykonos are the superstars of the Cyclade Islands, Syros is its bastion of authentic Greek life. Founded during the Greek Revolution in the 1820s, the capital city of Ermoupoli is a dreamscape of pastel-coloured neoclassical buildings and grand churches. Savour the 'Duchess of the Aegean' with visits to Plateia Miaouli, Ermoupoli's marble-paved square; St. George's (Grenada) Cathedral atop the medieval hilltop settlement of Ano Syros; and Vaporia, the city's most picturesque quarter.

ANCIENT POMPEII

Journey along the crescent-shaped Gulf of Naples to fabled UNESCO World Heritage site Pompeii, a Roman town buried under ash and pumice by the catastrophic Mount Vesuvius eruption of AD 79. As you walk through the remains of the forum, private homes and shops, you'll gain a clear picture of daily life nearly 2,000 years ago. Marvel at frescoes and mosaics adorning largely intact villas, and observe the aftermath of the eruption, nearly undisturbed since the classical era. You'll feel as if time has frozen here. On your return, pass by scenic coastal communities and conclude with a stop at a purveyor of cameo jewellery, a tradition that epitomises this region's imaginative spirit.

NORTHERN EUROPE

MAY 2023

SEPTEMBER 2023

SINGER HOUSE
ST. PETERSBURG, RUSSIA

LIFELONG IMPRESSIONS IN STORIED LANDS

Seasoned travellers know that sometimes you leave a place, but it doesn't leave you. Northern Europe is rife with such destinations. A land of hearty ancestors whose primitive earth and artworks may crumble, but whose myths, legends and fables only flourish with successive generations. We arrive at these ports of call with expectations. We leave humbled, changed, yearning to return.

Seven Seas Splendor™ makes multiple returns to one such place in 2023: St. Petersburg, the grand city founded by Tsar Peter the Great on the Nera River in 1703. The list of must-sees is familiar - Catherine Palace's Hall of Light, the gilded dome of St. Isaac's Cathedral, the Hermitage's indescribable Winter Palace - but your memories will be unique, and treasured forever.

Seven Seas Voyager® dances with Portugal's rhythmic coast before sailing north to the jewels of the Baltics. Stroll through the late-17th century architecture of the naval port of Karlskrona, a UNESCO World Heritage site, and soak in the undeniable beauty and charm of the Åland Islands from their capital of Mariehamn. Further west, discover the history and cultures of Greenland and Iceland, or revel in the lush greens of Cork and welcoming pubs of Dublin, Ireland.

Seven Seas Navigator® also travels to a new port of call in 2023. Leknes, Norway is a charming small town, but it's the collection of aligned granite and volcanic rock formations called Lofotveggen (Lofoten Wall) that will astound you with every glance. Overnight stays in Denmark's Faroe Islands and Stockholm, Sweden, deliver distinct examples of fine art and architecture, and even more remarkable people.

LEKNES, NORWAY

It's easy to envision being at the helm of a Viking warship as you approach the Lofoten Islands along Norway's northern coast (north, in fact, of the Arctic Circle). Stark, jagged mountains stand against the sky and deep fjords drop to sheltered bays and long, windswept beaches. Small villages and sheep pastures appear as you near Leknes, a small town of under 4,000 nestled on the island of Vestvågøy. In this land of auroras in winter and the midnight sun in summer, wild nature abounds - watch for the rare sea eagles flying overhead. In town, admire the work of local artists drawn by the stunning surroundings and enjoy a taste of stockfish - dried cod that dates to the Viking days and staple of the Norwegian diet.

Cruise down the free-flowing Kymijoki River in an open raft for a spectacularly scenic outdoor experience. The longest river in Finland, the Kymi, as it is known familiarly, flows through the beautiful, forested countryside to the gulf of Kotka. Finland was part of Sweden from the 12th century to 1809, during which time the river formed the border between Sweden and Russia. Today, Kymi attracts outdoor enthusiasts and chances are you will see kayakers, canoers or anglers trying to catch salmon as you raft down the calm waters. After an idyllic time on the river, stop for a lunch of flambéed salmon and traditional Finnish coffee, both prepared over a campfire.

OLDEN, NORWAY

HAUREN VIEWPOINT HIKE

Embrace Norway's adventurous spirit and serene beauty with a hike to the top of Mount Hauren. The ascent will present glorious views of the natural wonders that surround Olden, which nestles along the mouth of the Oldeelva River. The higher you ascend, the more stunning the scenery and the more invigorating the mountain air. Triumphant, you will reach the summit 380 metres above sea level for panoramic views. Sparkling Nordfjord stretches out before you, merging with sights of snow-capped peaks and pristine forests. From this lofty vantage point, you will also see the village of Loen and some of Norway's oldest farms – which thrive on the glacially formed moraine soil.

A CONTINENT OF WONDERS

It's perfectly reasonable to visualise cruising South America as you would cruising the world. It's all here: vibrant cities ripe with history, culture and architecture. A river as enveloped in mystery and lore as it is long, surrounded by the world's largest rainforest. The Andes Mountains - the world's longest continuous mountain range - dotted with the ruins of lost civilisations among its craggy peaks. Beguiling native fauna, from curious capybaras to stunning macaws to very, very relaxed sloths. And whether it's chorrillana in Chile or ceviche in Peru, there is a universe of cuisine defined by sizzle and spice.

Seven Seas Navigator® makes our first South America foray in 2023 with a voyage into the massive, mysterious Amazon interior. After passing through Santarem, Brazil's 'Wedding of the Waters', an overnight in Manaus offers opportunities to admire the giant lilies of Lake January, tour the über-lavish Teatro Amazonas opera house or swim with pink dolphins. The incomparable Seven Seas Splendor™ visits new ports of call in cosmopolitan and historic Panama City, Panama, in 2023 and Itajaí, Brazil, in 2024. She also overnights in Lima, Peru, inviting you to witness the magic of Machu Picchu through an optional Land Programme.

Beginning and ending with sun-soaked stops throughout the Caribbean, Seven Seas Mariner® makes a memorable holiday season voyage up the Amazon River in 2023, and celebrates the new year amidst the pristine beaches of Bridgetown, Barbados.

Seven Seas Voyager® also visits Itajaí, Brazil, in 2024 before embarking on an epic voyage to Antarctica.

Embrace A Passion for Rio, experience Authentic Buenos Aires or discover Chilean Wonders & Wine by extending your time with a FREE pre- or post-cruise land programme on select voyages.

ITAJAÍ, BRAZIL

ITAJAÍ, BRAZIL

Sitting at the mouth of the scenic Rio Itajaí, this cosmopolitan city between São Paulo and the Uruguayan border offers a culture-rich respite from the frenetic pace of Brazil's larger cities. Founded by mid-18th century Portuguese settlers, the bayside city received an influx of German immigrants a hundred years later, perhaps ensuring the region's proliferation of excellent wineries and breweries. Past the shops, bars and restaurants of the bustling port, visit the eclectic Itajaí Historical Museum for post-colonial artefacts and Ethno-Archaeological Museum for local prehistoric finds. The white sands of Atalaia Beach beckon, as does snapping a photo of an iconic cliff formation called Parrot's Beak south of the beach.

PANAMA CITY, PANAMA

The very definition of an aquatic crossroads, dynamic Panama City boasts a shimmering skyline, cobblestone streets lined with rooftop bars, and centuries of intact ruins to explore. Founded in 1519, the original Panama City – Panamá Viejo – was abandoned in the mid-17th century and replaced by a historic district – Casco Viejo – that are together recognised as a UNESCO Cultural World Heritage site. The distinctive design of architect Frank Gehry greets your arrival at BioMuseo, the world's first biodiversity museum that vividly tells Panama's biological history. Discover a trove of artefacts and information on the planning, construction and operation of the 'Big Ditch' at the interactive Panama Canal Museum, and pay homage to the 22,000 workers who died building the canal from 1899 to 1913 at the impressive Plaza de Francia.

Board a catamaran and sail the picturesque waterway at the 'End of the World', Beagle Channel. Pass by pristine island habitats where seabirds, sea lions and Magellanic penguins flourish and watch albatrosses, seagulls and skuas wheel through the skies, and sleepy sea lions laze on the rocks. TRADITIONAL MOROCCAN

EPIC SAILS IN UNMATCHED LUXURY

“Why do we love the sea? It is because it has some potent power to make us think things we like to think.”

AMERICAN PAINTER ROBERT HENRI (1865-1929)

Covering over 70% of the earth’s surface, the oceans of the world serve many a practical purpose. As Henri’s quote suggests, ‘the sea’ also possesses less definable – but just as important – powers.

To inspire. Soothe. Invigorate. Awe. Setting out upon the Atlantic aboard ships of incomparable luxury and space frees your mind to relax, to imagine, to dream and to “think things we like to think”.

Seven Seas Splendor™ is the first to traverse the Atlantic in 2023. After sharpening your cooking skills in her Culinary Arts Kitchen during the voyage, indulge in a decadent tasting of local wines and cheeses in Ponta Delgada on São Miguel Island in the Azores. On a trip later in the year, marvel at the picturesque streetscapes and seaside promenade of Santa Cruz de la Palma in the Canary Islands before sailing west across the Atlantic. In 2024, take a day trip to Seville, Spain, and visit Alcazar, a beautiful, medieval Islamic palace that fuses Christian and Moorish architecture, before completing your journey in Barcelona.

Seven Seas Voyager® makes one transoceanic voyage in 2023 and two in 2024, offering ample opportunities to luxuriate on her Pool Deck, catch a musical in her intimate theatre or get pampered by the rejuvenating services and treatments of Serene Spa & Wellness™.

Before completing her 2023 transoceanic trek to New York City, Seven Seas Mariner® visits Hamilton, Bermuda, where you can post photos of your footprints in the pink sand of Horseshoe Bay Beach and stroll UNESCO World Heritage-listed St. George, the oldest inhabited town of English origin in the New World.

WALVIS BAY, NAMIBIA

COASTAL BEAUTY & DESERT TREASURES

Unspoiled Walvis Bay, a natural lagoon, is the only deep-sea harbour on the Namibian coast. Discovered by Portuguese explorer Bartolomeo Dias in 1487, it's known for its spectacular array of migrating and local birds. Take a short drive out of town to Dune 7, the tallest sand dune in the Namib Desert at over 365 metres, for amazing views and spectacular photos. Then tour the Walvis Bay Salt Refiners, which produces over 700,000 tons of salt every year, imported by countries all over the world. Continue exploring with a drive into Namib Naukluft National Park, the country's largest nature preserve, which is full of windswept sand dunes, the sand-diving lizard, the Namaqua chameleon, and "the world's ugliest plant," the welwitschia.
